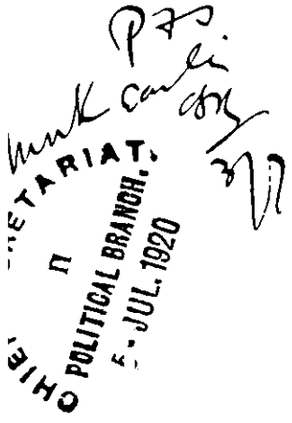
The Palace, Mysore,
2nd July 1920



Dear Mr Ranganatha Rao Saheb,

Some time back His Highness was pleased to entrust to Mr. B. Ramakrishna Rao, the work of collecting Mysore State papers and compiling them into book form, for purposes of future recor Mr. B. Ramakrishna Rao visited Bangalore and Madras on this account and prepared a compilation divided into the following four volumes:-

(1) Vol. I. Treaties.
(2) " II. Restoration and Settlement.
(3) " III. Assumption of the Government by His Highness the Maharaja Krishnaraja Wadiyar Bahadur III.
(4) " IV. Correspondence between 1831 & 1868.

The first three volumes are now ready for the press but the fourth is not as yet ready as the same has yet to be compared with the originals now in the records of the Government Secretariat and the Residency, Bangalore. Arrangements are being made to make the originals now in the Residency accessible to him.

I am directed to request you to kindly have necessary orders issued with the Dewan's approval for printing 50 copies of each of these four volumes in the Government Branch Press here, the work of printing the first three volumes being taken up now and that of the IV volume later on on its completion.

Mr. Ramakrishna Rao will furnish to the Chief Foreman here all details such as size, form &c., of the books to be printed.

Yours sincerely,

C. Ranganatha Rao Saheb, Esq.,B.A., B.L.,
Private Secretary to the Dewan of Mysore,
Bangalo
